Tue 19th Feb: 1pm-3pm Messy Church. Bible Super Heroes – Jonah. This February half term at Messy Church we are thinking about the Bible superhero Jonah. He groaned about the things God wanted him to do, he ran away, braved a storm and even ended up in a whale! Want to find out what happened next? Come along. Our crafts will include bubble painting sea pictures, collage boats, open and shut whale puppets, Jonah biscuits and a "catch Jonah in the cup" game. We will end by sharing a meal together of fish finger sandwiches followed by fruit and biscuits. Messy church is free, but we kindly ask for donation towards food and crafts. Deacon Sarah.

Other Notices

The Marmite Messiah: As the Circuit Preaching Plan has placed us at The Spire on consecutive Sundays, we have prepared our services together and are offering a "mini-series" on the above theme - The Marmite Messiah. On 27th January (Eifron) and 3rd February (Kate) we shall centre the services around the Lectionary readings, principally Luke 4. We shall try to have some common "pegs" on which to hang our thinking and worship. A handout is available to give some context and perhaps to plug some gaps for those who can't be at both services. All feedback welcome. We hope you find this approach helpful. Kate White & Eifron Hopper.

Poole Bay Circuit Music Day - Singing the Faith in the 21st Century. Sat Mar 16th 10am - 4pm. Come along to The Spire and welcome friends around the circuit to learn to play and sing new songs which we can then bring back to our church to enjoy fellowship and worship with other musicians and singers. The event will consist of opportunities to learn and practice with others followed by a short service to share together. For further information about how to register for this event, or for any queries, contact Sarah on 01202 741479 or sarahkatherinebadley@gmail.com

Safeguarding Training: There are two further circuit training events. If you haven't yet attended one, you can attend one of the following; Wednesday 13th February 7pm- 9.30pm at Winton Methodist Church, or Saturday 30th March 10am- 12.30pm at Broadstone Methodist Church. Please let Pat Palmer know if you plan to attend either of these events.

Poole Food Bank: Poole Food Bank provides three days' worth of food to those in crisis. The food is free & the vouchers required to access it are held by a wide range of professionals in the community, so that those in need can be helped quickly. There is a basket for items in the atrium. PFB wish list: Tinned goods, pasta, rice, cereal, pasta sauce, UHT milk, tea, coffee, jams, biscuits, loo rolls. NON PERISHABLE FOOD ONLY. Please check expiry dates. Thank you.
